SMART VOYAGES MADE.

Smart voyages have been the rule the past month between here and the Coast, and the Coast and Island ports. The Irmgard, which arrived vesterday in San Francisco, went up in fourteen days, which is a very smart passage in that direction indeed. The Mohican The Annie Johnson made the voyage up from Hilo in nineteen days. The Andrew Welch came down from San in fourteen days. The C. A. Thayer came down from Grays Harbor to Honobilu in twenty-two days. The Fullerton arrived here from San Francisco in sixteen days. The Eva sailed from Honolulu to Eureka in twentythree days. The Marion E. Chilcott was twenty days in going from Honolulu to Monterey.

All of these are good voyages; some of them are splendid ones.
